Origins and Historical Background of Derobio Escrima

Historical Roots of Filipino Martial Arts

Filipino martial arts, collectively known as Eskrima, Arnis, or Kali, have been practiced for centuries. They originated as practical combat systems used by indigenous Filipino tribes to defend against invaders and rival clans. These arts are characterized by their focus on weaponry, particularly sticks, knives, and other bladed weapons, along with unarmed techniques.

The Birth of Derobio Escrima

Derobio Escrima is a specific lineage within the Filipino martial arts that traces its origins to the early 20th century. It was founded by Master Derobio, whose innovative approach combined traditional techniques with new strategies to adapt to modern combat scenarios. The art was initially kept within a close circle of practitioners, emphasizing secrecy and the importance of mastering fundamental principles before sharing the techniques widely.

Preservation of Tradition

The secretive nature of Derobio Escrima was partly due to its practical applications during times of conflict, as well as a desire to preserve its effectiveness against evolving threats. This clandestine approach allowed practitioners to hone their skills without revealing vulnerabilities to outsiders.
